

RECONDITIONING IBC'S

Although these IBCs have been professionally cleaned, they could have previously contained any type of liquid or chemicals and traces of this liquid could still remain in the bottle.

Therefore they cannot be used to store liquids or any products that are consumed by animals and humans. If you have any questions or concerns, please contact our team, who are more than happy to assist.